

Exhibits, Environments and More >

Seeking an Exhibit Fabricator / Warehouse Manager

Displayco, with 40 years of business success, has an immediate requirement for a Exhibit Fabricator/ Warehouse Manager, full-time position. We are accepting applications for an enthusiastic individual to join our team in Calgary. The Exhibit Fabricator/ Warehouse Manager will work collaboratively as part of the production team providing leadership and supervision in the building and development of client-driven design approaches and solutions.

Displayco specializes in building unique and exciting trade show exhibits, events and environments both locally and around the world. This individual should be innovative, creative and a team player who is able to lead by example in a fast-paced, deadline driven environment.

DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES

- Producing high quality exhibits with both wood and structure components.
- Managing production, planning daily and weekly workloads to achieve departmental and facility objectives, and delivering of expected results.
- Manage and coordinate labor for production to assure delivery dates are achieved.
- Manage quality control processes to ensure delivery of Displayco's service level commitments.
- Defines responsibilities and establishes effective standards of performance of subordinates. Appraises their performance against responsibility and accountability factors.
- Manage the shipping of products and booths. Ensuring proper packing and paperwork.
- Manage the receiving of all shipments, inventorying and ensuring delivery to proper department.
- Maintenance of all shop equipment, saws, compressors, etc.
- Recommend and analyze equipment to increase productivity and safety.
- Ensure all paperwork is completed and recorded in the appropriate places.
- Reviews completed projects with project managers to analyze and improve efficiency and cost effectiveness.
- Enforce Health & Safety regulations.
- Perform additional duties as required.

REQUIREMENTS

- 5+ years of direct work experience in carpentry
- Prior experience in the trade show and exhibit industry preferred
- Familiarity with Octanorm, custom building and construction techniques.
- Ability to plan and supervise effectively
- Strong problem identification and problem resolution skills
- Effective leadership skills
- Strong teamwork
- High level of integrity, confidence, and accountability

Interested candidates please email your detailed qualifications to info@displayco.ca by July 20, 2018.